Respect and Trust

"I never go online without an adult."

"I do my homework after school."

Who is Telling the Truth?

Directions: For each statement, draw a circle around the children who are telling the truth.

"I say my prayers before I go to bed."

"I always use a paintbrush when I paint."

Sometimes it is hard to tell if someone is telling the truth. We have to watch closely to see if what someone is doing matches what they are saying.

If someone says they care about you, but they make you feel hurt or scared, you may need help figuring out the truth. Tell your parents or another adult you trust. Ask them for help.
